sent you a telegram saying that Nelson ald meet McGovern for six rounds. I still verify the wording of that tele of Philadelphia, advising us ready to make the match. Th following day I received a set of articles the clauses of the same did not suit for McGovern and 50 for Nelson. I may add that this is the one clause that I strongly objected to, as I certainly think and know that Nelson is entitled to the big end of the purse.

On this demand I am not seeking any more than Terry McGovern received when he was champion. If Joe Humphreys does not know what that means, probably Sam Harris can en-lighten him on the subject.
